

FRONTIER DAYS, INC. CARES!

Frontier Days, Inc., working with the Village's Commission for Citizens with Disabilities Commission, has secured an area in front of the Arlington Heights Memorial Library for people in wheelchairs to use for viewing our annual Fourth of July parade, which steps off at 10 am, Monday, July 5th.

This area is located just north of the Parade's Reviewing Stand in front of the Library. This area will be marked as reserved for people in wheelchairs and will accommodate 12 people in wheelchairs plus one companion. Temporary Handicap Parking spaces will be conveniently located south of the Wheelchair Seating Area in the Library's parking lot. These spaces (along the east side of the Library's lot) will be marked as Temporary Handicap Parking Spaces for the morning of the Parade only.
